

Most Modern Technologies in the Planetarium

Both the current star projectors and the technology for full-dome projection in the planetarium incorporate state-of-the-art technologies. Whether it is a fisheye projector in the center of the dome or a hybrid system with a star projec-tor and numerous video projectors and high-performance computers, special hard- and software technologies are always used to make the presentations in the planetarium visually attractive and vivid.

